

March Madness 2010

The Arc of the Mid-South celebrates
National Disability Awareness Month

February 24, 2010 - Disability Days on the Hill

The Arc of the Mid-South is hosting a bus ride to the Capitol in Nashville, TN! This is your chance to speak to legislators about issues important to you and your family. Let your voice be heard! All you have to do is register.

March 5, 2010 - March Madness Kick-Off

Join The Arc at the Church Health Center Wellness, 1115 Union Avenue, for a reception to mark the beginning of Disability Awareness Month.

March 11-12, 2010 - Job Readiness Workshop

This two-day workshop is designed for high school juniors and seniors to learn skills on how to find and keep employment following graduation. The first day the students will break into group sessions and the second day the students will have a chance to speak to employers at a career fair. Sign your school up today!

March 18, 2010 - Town Hall Meeting

Join The Arc at the Church Health Center Wellness, for a discussion on Funding For Disability Services. This meeting will take place from 6:00 pm to 8:00 pm.

March 19-21, 2010 - Sabbath Weekend

Each year The Arc sponsors Sabbath Weekend. This weekend is dedicated to bringing awareness to churches and religious organizations of the needs and abilities of individuals with intellectual and developmental disabilities.

March 27, 2010 - "Rumble on the River"

Wheelchair Basketball Tournament

Teams from local businesses, government, and organizations compete in The Arc's annual wheelchair basketball tournament at Mississippi Blvd. Christian Church, 70 N. Bellevue. The Hershey Company "Ice Breakers" are the defending champions.
